

First Unitarian Society of Plainfield presents

Women Behind Bars Standing Tall

November 17, 2017 7:30 pm

Parish Hall Theater, 724 Park Avenue, Plainfield

An interactive Cabaret about domestic violence, addiction, community violence and child abuse written by incarcerated women.

Meta Theatre Company's cast is comprised of women inside and outside the prison walls in New Jersey.

For more information: (908) 756-0750 or info@fusp.org

This is one of the 4 FREE events the First Unitarian Society is offering in November 2017 in support of eliminating violence against women.

Inspiring Compassionate Action

