Plainfield Genealogy Club

The Plainfield Genealogy Club will hold an organizational meeting on Saturday, June 16, 2018, from 1 to 3 p.m. in the Library's Anne Louise Davis Room (lower level). You are invited to join a group of interested members of our community for this first meeting of the Plainfield Genealogy Club.

Whether you are:

- ◆ A beginner who wants to pass down your family history to future generations,
- ◆ The family historian who wants to broaden your genealogy research base,
- ◆ A person looking for relatives,
- ◆ A person trying to discover lost heritage,

Please join us!

We will cover the following:

- ◆ Discuss what we need to do to form a local club and why we want to do this.
- ◆ Consider our interests and priorities for discussion, lecture, and research topics.
- ◆ Discuss organizational structure.
- ◆ Sign up members.
- ◆ Discuss publicity and word-of-mouth options to get more members.
- ◆ Determine a meeting schedule and programming for the next 3-4 months.
- ◆ Present a brief program covering the following:
  - ◆ Welcome – Library Director, Mary Ellen Rogan
  - ◆ Plainfield Public Library Genealogy Center – Department Head, Sarah Hull
  - ◆ Family history research – Genealogy Librarian, Jane Thoner
