teen programs - January 2018

Foam Printing 1/4/18 4pm, Room 5

Foam Printing is a quick and effective way to express yourself in printed form using foam rubber, drawings and ink pads.

Bookbinding for Beginners 1/9/18 4pm, Room 5

Now's the time to create that journal for the new year! Learn basic Japanese-style bookbinding techniques and create a book that's just for you! Basic materials are provided.

Star Wars-themed Perler Beads 1/16/18, 4pm, Room 5

Come and create your own figure using Perler Beads. A selection of patterns for Star Wars characters will be available. Come and try it out!

Youth Advisory Board 1/18/18 3:45pm, Room 5

Help influence the future of services for teens at the Library as part of the "Youth Advisory Board". All patrons 11-17 are welcome, and there's free pizza - (until someone grabs the last slice, that is!)

Origami 1/25/18, 4pm, Room 5

Come and learn some basics of the Japanese art of paper folding. Learn how to fold a crane, a frog or a box! No experience necessary.

Coffeecup Twist Drawings 1/30/18 3:45pm, Room 5

Create interactive drawings using nested coffee cups to make scenes that change as you twist the cups one inside the other.
