Name	Location	Contact	Owner	Start	End	Records Online at Plainfield Public Library	Records in Print Form at Plainfield Public Library	Records Elsewhere	Findagrave	Notes
Baptist Burial Ground	Plainfield Ave. (formerly known as William St.)	(908) 756-5322 churchofficefpbc@gmail.com	First Park Baptist Church	1850	unknown	http://www.plainfieldlibrary.info /pdf/LH/LH_EvergreenAZ.pdf https://www.plainfieldlibrary.inf o/pdf/LH/idx-ParkBaptistCem.pdf	list & map of soldiers & sailors graves & headstones as of 1938; map; GSNJ list in file	FamilySearch: Cemetery Transcriptions from Plainfield and North Plainfield J. USGenWeb: (Baptist section is merged with the Methodist section) http://files.usgwarchives.net/nj/union/cemeteries/evergreen.txt	as Evergreen Cemetery	known as Evergreen Cemetery; located in northern section of grounds
Baptist Burial Ground, Old	West Second St.		First Baptist Church	1819	1850			none are known to exist	no listing	only a half acre; interments said to have been moved to Evergreen Cemetery
Brith Abraham Bnai Zion Cemetery	1524 New Market Ave., South Plainfield	administered by Sanford B. Epstein, Inc. (908) 245-7100	once, I. O. Brith Abraham in Plainfield	1911	current		discussed in New Jersey Graveyard and Gravestone Inscriptions Locators: Middlesex County	none are known to exist	yes	prior to obtaining this cemetery the congregation used Temple Sholom (Gateville) Cemetery in Bridgewater
Brook Avenue Cemetery	Chatham St., North Plainfield	(908) 756-2666 upcplainfield525@gmail.com	United Presbyterian Church in Plainfield	1839	[2000]		tombstone transcriptions from Gleanings newsletter GSWF, copy of church list of unknown [locations of] plots, map, copy of 1947 list by The Genealogical Society	FamilySearch: Cemetery Transcriptions from Plainfield and North Plainfield	yes	includes people who weren't Presbyterian; locked gate
Children of Israel Cemetery	New Market Ave., South Plainfield	administered by Sanford B. Epstein, Inc. (908) 245-7100	once, Congregation Children of Israel in Plainfield; later, United Orthodox Synagogue	1909	current		discussed in New Jersey Graveyard and Gravestone Inscriptions Locators: Middlesex County	none are known to exist	included in Brith Abraham Bnai Zion Cemetery	prior to obtaining this cemetery the congregation used Temple Sholom (Gateville) Cemetery in Bridgewater
Cole Family Burial Ground Evergreen Cemetery see Baptist & Methodist Burial Grounds or	back from E. Front St., near Terrill Rd. Plainfield Ave.		once, the Cole Family	by 1806	unknown		list of 9 burials in file		no listing	believed to be gone
Plainfield City Plot Hebrew Cemetery	New Market Ave., South									loose term applied to multiple adjoining Hillside Cemetery	Plainfield 1401 Woodland Ave., Scotch Plains	(908) 756-1729 hillsidecemetery@hillsidecemete ry.com	Hillside Cemetery Assoc.	1886*	current	https://www.plainfieldlibrary.inf o/pdf/LH/DunhamAtlas1894.pdf	1894 map of sect. A in Dunham atlas, plate 12	map on their website	yes	cemeteries non-sectarian; includes Soldiers' Plot & Seventh Day Baptist relocation; *there are deaths that predate 1886, as a number of bodies were moved here from other cemeteries
Hillside Cemetery at Samptown	1400 New Market Ave., South Plainfield	(908) 753-2382 mail@fbcsouthplainfield.com	First Baptist Church of South Plainfield	1690	current		discussed in New Jersey Graveyard and Gravestone Inscriptions Locators: Middlesex County*	none are known to exist	yes	*there are an estimated 1,000 unmarked graves in addition to the marked ones
Holy Redeemer Cemetery	1734 Clinton Ave., South Plainfield	(908) 822-5892 shcemetery@comcast.net	Roman Catholic Church of the Sacred Heart	1919	current		County	search mechanism available on their website, https://holyredeemercemetery.net/	yes
Laing Family Burial Ground	Park Ave., South Plainfield		once, the Laing Family	[1684]	unknown		discussed in New Jersey Graveyard and Gravestone Inscriptions Locators: Middlesex County	none are known to exist	no listing	considered a neighborhood burial place, so that it included people from the area who were not exclusively Quaker, despite being also known as the Quaker burying- ground; located on Holly Farm; the markers were reportedly taken and used in the building of a dam
Marsalis Family Burial Ground	vicinity of Rock Ave. & Front St.		once, the Marsalis Family	unknown	unknown			none are known to exist	no listing	early burials; said to include Revolutionary War soldiers; family name spelling varies
Methodist Episcopal Burial Ground	Plainfield Ave. (formerly known as William St.)	(908) 756-2684	originally, First Methodist Church; later, Methodist Covenant Church	1864	current	http://www.plainfieldlibrary.info /pdf/LH/LH EvergreenCemetery MapIndex.pdf	FamilySearch list; typed list; map	FamilySearch: Cemetery Transcriptions from Plainfield and North Plainfield; USGenWeb: (Baptist section is merged with the Methodist section) http://files.usgwarchives.net/nj/union/cemeteries/evergreen.txt	as Evergreen Cemetery	sometimes known as Evergreen Cemetery, located in southern section of grounds; in 1899 the 240 bodies buried on the southern end of Evergreen were moved deeper into the Methodist area so that the southern end could be sold for development
Methodist Episcopal Burial Ground, Old	West Front St. near Madison Ave.		First Methodist Church	[1832]	1846			none are known to exist	no listing	it's said that burials were removed from graveyard behind church and later moved to the corner of Seventh St. & what is now Arlington Ave. before being moved to their current location in Evergreen Cemetery
Monumental Cemetery early name for the Methodist Cemetery

Name	Location	Contact	Owner	Start	End	Records Online at Plainfield	Records in Print Form at	Records Elsewhere	Findagrave	Notes
						Public Library	Plainfield Public Library
O'Havey Zedek V'Sholom	New Market Ave., South	administered by Sanford B.	once, Congregation O'Havey	unknown	unknown		discussed in New Jersey	none are known to exist	included in Brith Abraham
Cemetery	Plainfield	Epstein, Inc. (908) 245-7100	Zedek V'Sholom in Plainfield;				Graveyard and Gravestone		Bnai Zion Cemetery count
			later, United Orthodox				Inscriptions Locators: Middlesex
			Synagogue				County
Plainfield City Plots	Plainfield Ave.		City of Plainfield	unknown	unknown			none are known to exist	no listing	two locations are identified on the Methodist map; a Potter's Field; reportedly includes many people with no connection to Plainfield except to have died in the vicinity Pound Family Burial Ground	Rock Ave.		once, the Pound Family	unknown	unknown			none are known to exist	no listing	Revolutionary soldiers were said to be buried here; there are also Pounds buried in the Quaker graveyard Presbyterian Cemetery see Brook Avenue Cemetery see
Quaker Graveyard	Watchung Ave., behind the	https://www.quakercloud.org/cl	Rahway and Plainfield Friends	1788	current		map in Vail Collection; list in	FamilySearch: Cemetery Transcriptions	yes
1	Meeting House	oud/rahway-and-plainfield-	Meeting				GMNJ v47p97; Plainfield Burial	from Plainfield and North Plainfield;		, friends-meeting					Ground (1998)	http://files.usgwarchives.net/nj/union/cem eteries/plainfld.txt; http://www.plainfieldquakers.org/History/H istoryMain.asp
Quaker Graveyard, earlier	vicinity of Plainfield Country Club, Edison		once, Rahway and Plainfield Friends Meeting	[1736]	1788			none are known to exist	no listing	the precise location is unknown Revolutionary War casualties	unknown		Thends weeding	1777	1777			none are known to exist	no listing	casualties from the Battle of Short Hills are burials										said to be buried in the area, but with no reliable or clear details reliable of clear actains St. Mary's Cemetery	308 Berckman St.	(908) 756-0085	St. Mary's Roman Catholic	[1872]	current				yes	may have begun before 1872, earliest stmarysplainfield@gmail.com	Church						()	record on Findagrave is 1885
Seventh Day Baptist Cemetery	West Ninth St.	(908) 791-5545	once, the Seventh Day Baptist	unknown	1903		partial transcription of 17 names		no listing	interments moved to Hillside Cemetery joeystthomas@yahoo.com	Church							(section 21 on their map); some bodies were moved to family plots when West Ninth St. site was sold to city
Smock Farm Burials	vicinity of Rock Ave., north of W.		once, individual families	unknown	unknown		about 10 names were found in		no listing	early burials of Whitehead, Coriell, Covert
	Front St.		once, individual families	UIIKIIOWII	ulikilowii		newspaper coverage		ilo listing	families (Smock was a later owner with no TIONE SE						newspaper coverage			known burials); markers removed or buried; possibly also the location of burial place of enslaved persons place of ensiaved persons Spencer Farm Cemetery	Stirling Rd., Watchung		once, the Spencer family	unknown	unknown		Somerset County Historical	İ	as Gods Acre Cemetery	sometimes known as the Washington
	ĺ						Quarterly, v5p299 list; slightly	1		Valley Cemetery in early newspapers ĺ						different copy of that list from	1 Warren History is in file
Stelle Farm Burials	Stelle Ave.		once, the Stelle family	unknown	unknown			none are known to exist	no listing	said to be the burial place of a large Stelle I di III bui idis	Stelle AVE.		once, the stelle failility	unknown	anknown			none are known to exist	no naulig	number of enslaved persons; man alive at ĺ			1				1		end of 19th century said he expected to ĺ			1				1
Vermeule Family Burial Ground	Greenbrook Rd hebind		once, the Vermeule family	unknown	unknown		flier in file lists burials with map	1	yes	be buried there cemetery has been restored vermedie raininy buntai Ground	Vermeule Mansion, North		once, are vermeure randly	unknown	anknown		mer milite lists burials with map		yes	cemetery has been restored
	Plainfield							1
	riaiiiiielü	l .	l			l	li .	I .	l	į.